

GRAZSCHUMPETERCENTRE

Call for Applications

Second Graz Schumpeter Summer School

Classical Economics After Sraffa: Problems and Perspectives

Graz, Austria, 13-18 July 2009

2010 sees the 50th anniversary of the publication of Piero Sraffa's book Production of Commodities by Means of Commodities (Cambridge University Press, 1960). This is a fitting occasion to discuss in depth with leading experts the development, current frontiers of research and open questions of the return to 'the standpoint of the old classical economists from Adam Smith to Ricardo' advocated by Sraffa. The Graz Schumpeter Centre (GSC) is pleased to announce its next Summer School that is devoted to this theme. The topics to be dealt with include: production and distribution; capital accumulation and economic growth; innovations and technical change; exhaustible resources and the environment; financial and economic crises; and issues in the history of economic thought.

Senior Faculty include:

Professor Pierangelo Garegnani, University of Rome III, Italy

Professor Harvey Gram, Queens College, New York, U.S.

Professor Eiji Hosoda, Keio University, Tokyo, Japan

Professor Man-Seop Park, Korea University, Seoul, Korea

Professor Sergio Parrinello, University of Rome 'La Sapienza', Italy

Professor Neri Salvadori, University of Pisa, Italy

Professor Bertram Schefold, University of Frankfurt/M., Germany

Professor Franklin Serrano, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Professor Ian Steedman, Manchester Metropolitan University, U.K.

The Summer School will be held on the campus of Graz University, Graz, Austria. Admission is open to up to 30 Junior Fellows, that is, graduate students and recent Ph.D.'s. The schedule of the Summer School has between three and four lectures each day, given by members of the Senior Faculty. A further part of the time will be devoted to seminars in which Junior Fellows are given the opportunity to present their research and get feedbacks from peers. Successful participation in the Summer School will be certified.

Application: Applications should include three copies of: a CV; a one-page statement of the student's motivation to participate in the Summer School, indicating also his or her familiarity with modern Classical economics; two letters of recommendation from university professors. The Application Form will be available on the homepage and should be completed and attached to any application. The material should be sent per mail to: Graz Schumpeter Centre, "Summer School 2009", University of Graz, RESOWI-Centre FE, A-8010 Graz, Austria by the end of April. For questions about the application procedure and the Summer School in general, please contact us per E-mail: schumpeter.centre@uni-graz.at

Detailed information about tuition fee, accommodation and board will be given by the end of February. See the homepage of the Summer School at:

www.uni-graz.at/schumpeter.centre

Cooperation: The GSC cooperates with other European academic institutions to secure a diversified scientific board and a broad attendance. The partnership with other Academic Institutions creates a scientific network ensuring useful spillover effects.

Scientific Committee: Pierangelo Garegnani (Rome), Christian Gehrke (Graz), Heinz D. Kurz (Graz), Sergio Parrinello (Rome), Ian Steedman (Manchester), Richard Sturn (Graz), Neri Salvadori (Pisa).

Contact: For further information on application and funding please access the Summer School Website at www.uni-graz.at/schumpeter.centre or contact the Summer School Office.

Graz Schumpeter Centre
Summer School Office
RESOWI - Centre FE
8010 Graz, Austria

TEL +43 (0)316 380 3595

FAX +43 (0)316 380 9523

MAIL schumpeter.centre@uni-graz.at
WEB www.uni-graz.at/schumpeter.centre